
Autumn

vocabulary pack

1. fall foliage - the colourful leaves on trees in autumn
2. to rake leaves - to clean up fallen leaves
3. leaf peepers - people who travel to see and enjoy colourful autumn leaves
4. vibrant - very bright, colourful or full of energy
5. harvest - the process or time of gathering crops such as fruit and vegetables
6. autumnal - typical of or connected with autumn
7. gloomy - dark and grey, with little sunlight; also used to describe a sad or depressing mood
8. cool (sweater weather) - a little cold, but comfortable enough to wear a sweater or light jacket
9. chilly - uncomfortably cold, when the temperature is low
10. pastry - sweet or savoury baked food made from dough
11. savory - salty or spicy, rather than sweet
12. cake or pie?

Cake - a sweet baked food made with flour, sugar, and eggs. It has different flavours and decorations. (chocolate cake, birthday cake).
Pie - a baked dish with pastry and a filling. It can be sweet or savory. (apple pie, cherry pie, chicken pie, meat pie).

13. to get back into a routine - to start doing your usual activities regularly again
14. to set an intention - to decide what you want to focus on or achieve
15. to ease into something - to start new activity slowly and comfortably

 English can become part of your new routine!*

Task 1

Match the words with their definitions

1. vibrant	a. uncomfortably cold
2. chilly	b. typical of autumn
3. harvest	c. people who enjoy seeing fall foliage
4. leaf peepers	d. bright and full of colour
5. gloomy	e. dark, grey and without much sunlight
6. savory	f. to collect fallen leaves using a rake
7. autumnal	g. the process of gathering crops
8. to rake leaves	h. salty or spicy rather than sweet

Fall or Autumn - which one is correct?

Autumn is the older word. It came into general use in English in the 1300s. Fall became common later, in the 1600s. It comes from the idea of leaves falling from the trees.

Today, autumn is more common in British English, while fall is especially common in American English.

So you can use either one - both mean the same season!

Task 2

Match the phrases with their meanings

1. to get back into a routine	a. to start something slowly and comfortably
2. to set an intention	b. to return to a regular schedule
3. to ease into smth	c. to decide what you want to focus on

How to use phrases?

- After a long summer, Anna wants to start waking up at 7 a.m. and exercising regularly again → So Anna wants to get back into a routine.
- Tom wants to focus more on his health and reduce screen time → So Tom wants to set an intention to live healthier.
- Sarah doesn't want to start studying for three hours every day. She wants to start with 20 minutes → So Sarah wants to ease into studying.

Notice the patterns!

1. get back into + noun / V-ing → get back into a routine / exercising
2. set an intention to + V → set an intention to exercise
3. ease into + noun / V-ing → ease into a new routine / studying

Let's make your own list!

My routine: This autumn, I'm going to get back into _____(noun/ V+ing).
My intention: I'd like to set an intention to _____ (V).
Taking it slow: For now, I'll ease into _____(noun/V+ing).

Task 3

Complete the sentences.
Use the words from the box

savory, rake leaves, harvest, gloomy, vibrant, autumnal, leaf peeper

1. Red, orange and yellow are everywhere. The trees are covered in _____ colors, making the whole park look bright.

2. Every autumn, she plans weekend trips to different forests just to see the most beautiful fall foliage. She's a real _____.

3. It was a _____ and chilly morning. I just wanted to stay at home with a cup of hot chocolate and a warm blanket.

4. We visited a small farm during the _____ and picked apples straight from the trees.

5. She doesn't have a sweet tooth, so she chose a _____ pastry filled with cheese and spinach.

6. We need to _____ this weekend because the garden is completely covered with fallen leaves.

7. The restaurant changes its menu every season, and this month it has several _____ dishes made with pumpkin, apples, and mushrooms.

Task 4

Write and then tell your story aloud.
Use words and phrases from the pack

You don't need to use all of them - choose the ones that are the hardest for you to remember and practise them

- Describe your autumn vibe - What is autumn like for you this year?
- Talk about one routine or intention - What would you like to start, get back into, or do differently?
- Talk about your favourite autumn food - What do you usually eat or drink when the weather gets cooler?
- Add one personal detail - What are you looking forward to, enjoying, or planning this autumn?

Useful language:

- This autumn, I want to get back into...
- I'd like to set an intention to...
- I'll ease into...
- I'm looking forward to...
- I'd love to...
- When the weather gets..., I usually...
- I'm more into ... than ...
- This autumn feels... because...
- One thing I'd like to do more of is...
- For me, autumn is the perfect time to...

Keys

Task 1

1. d
2. a
3. g
4. c
5. e
6. h
7. b
8. f

Task 2

1. b
2. c
3. a

Need more inspiration? Here are some examples!

My routine: This autumn, I'm going to get back into reading before bed. I'd like to read for at least 20 minutes every evening instead of scrolling through social media. I hope this will help me calm down and sleep better.

Task 3

1. vibrant
2. leaf peeper
3. gloomy
4. harvest
5. savory
6. rake leaves
7. autumnal

My intention: I'd like to set an intention to take better care of my skin. I want to build a simple daily routine, drink more water, and be more consistent with my habits. My goal is to have healthier and more hydrated skin.

Taking it slow: For now, I'll ease into learning new vocabulary by spending 10 minutes on it every day. I'll write down five new words, look up their meanings, and try to use them in sentences. This way, I can build a consistent habit without feeling overwhelmed.

Learning English is not just about learning new words.
It's about career growth, new opportunities and confidence.

Ready to take the next step?
Follow @causeenglish and let's learn together!